

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Officials Depot becomes exclusive supplier of uniforms for CBCU

HOUSTON- Sports officiating apparel company Officials Depot has become the exclusive supplier of umpire uniforms for Charlie Strasser's scheduling organization CBCU.

CBCU is Houston's premier umpire training and scheduling organization founded in 2007. Its owner operator Charlier Strasser has grown this organization to cover games in Houston to all the surrounding Harris County areas. Games range in ages from youth leagues to adult leagues. His organization is comprised of hundreds of certified umpires.

Officials Depot currently manufacturers and provides pants, shirts, jackets, polos, undershirts, dry-fit merchandise for baseball, softball, basketball, football and soccer to a variety of different leagues and organizations across the United States.

Umpires who have registered with CBCU will be provided a variety of discounts on CBCU merchandise.

CBCU owner and operator Charlie Strasser "This new agreement will supply our umpires with the newest style and best quality products on the market". CEO & Founder of Officials Depot Michael Dorantes "We couldn't be more excited on this new partnership, we will strive our best to provide the umpires of the CBCU with the best apparel on the market."

Current CBCU umpires can visit www.officialsdepot.com/pages/cbcu for current CBCU gear.

You can learn more information about CBCU and register at www.chazmo.com